The session will focus on a critical aspect of the initial due diligence that must be understood by all junior practitioners - the review of security and the steps necessary for security enforcement. The session includes a review of the following:

- understanding PPSA search results
- the critical elements of a general security agreement (including a review of events of default, remedies, cure periods and notice requirements)
- the steps need to achieve PMSI priority
- important aspects of a security review report
- demand letters and notices of intention to enforce security
- forbearance as an enforcement strategy
