Once again we return with our annual Fall edition of this very popular dinner programme. Another set of significant and ground breaking appellate decisions will be discussed and dissected by a panel which exudes a wealth of appellate experience and legal knowledge.

The Honourable Mr. Justice Marc Rosenberg, Marie Henein and Kenneth Campbell will debate the latest developments in the criminal law as they discuss the most significant recent case law from the Supreme Court of Canada and Ontario Court of Appeal. What are the implications of R. v. Grant and R. v. Suberu on the exclusion of evidence under the Charter? How does R. v. McNeil affect disclosure obligations? And has R. v. Harrison changed the concept of "seriousness of the offence" under section 24(2)? All these questions and many more will be answered by our respected panel.

Join us for dinner and don't miss out on what always proves to be a lively, entertaining and, of course, very educational evening.
