Two things are undisputed about ethical dilemmas and the practise of criminal law: regardless of which side of the bar you have chosen, you're bound to have them; and depending on the side you have chosen, you will never face exactly the same ethical challenges as your opponent.

Robert W. Hubbard
Ministry of Attorney General –
Crown Law Office Criminal

Two of the most able legal minds in criminal practice will share their defence and Crown dilemmas and will challenge the other to come to ethical and workable resolutions in their respective practices. Counsel will be refereed by the esteemed Mr. Justice Moldaver of the Ontario Court of Appeal.

Moderator

Honourable Mr. Justice Michael Moldaver
Court of Appeal for Ontario

Learn compassion for the other side through an understanding of the ethical issues at play, or sharpen your strategies by anticipating your opponent's obstacles.
