

Opportunity for Real Estate (Condominium) Associate

Blaneys' Real Estate Group, with an impressive depth of experience spanning five decades, continues its growth. We have an immediate opening for an associate with 1-2 years of relevant experience in condominium development acting for vendors to join our Real Estate & Leasing Practice Group.

The successful candidate should possess experience, gained from a leading law firm, in condominium and mixed use development, including acquisitions and dispositions, financing and regulatory approval work. The candidate should also possess strong academic credentials and exceptional communication and drafting skills.

Applicants should forward their résumé and academic transcripts in confidence to Alva Orlando, Professional Development and Research Partner:
