

Civil Litigation Associate (3 to 6 years)

Location: London, Ontario

Filion Wakely Thorup Angeletti LLP, a pre-eminent management-side employment and labour boutique, is seeking to add a stellar mid-level litigation associate to its London, Ontario office.

The firm requires a self-sufficient and resourceful civil litigation associate with 3 - 6 years of solid post-Call experience and an affinity for labour and employment law to help with its high-end and busy practice. The firm's London and Toronto offices are seamless and the associate will also be expected to frequently interact with the Toronto team.

The successful candidate will be at ease in the courtroom and comfortable with client management. Excellent oral and written advocacy skills and a strategic understanding of litigation practice and procedure are a must. Previous experience with wrongful dismissal, labour relations, human rights, or workplace safety and insurance matters is a benefit. If you are a confident and organized practitioner and team player, then this is the ideal opportunity to work at a top-tier boutique with a well-deserved reputation for excellence. Known for its high associate-satisfaction rating, the firm offers a competitive compensation package and fair partnership track.
