

Commercial Litigation Associate Wanted

Devry Smith Frank LLP is an established forty-three (43) lawyer firm with a broadly based practice including: commercial litigation, banking/insolvency, family law, criminal law, wills/estates, corporate/commercial, commercial lending, personal injury and real estate.

We are currently seeking an associate lawyer for our commercial litigation/bank recovery groups.

The position will involve exposure to a broad base of commercial litigation matters including: commercial landlord and tenant, shareholder disputes, bankruptcy and insolvency, secured and unsecured debt enforcement, wrongful dismissal, mortgage/real estate litigation, construction liens, estate litigation, fraud matters and other civil litigation, with an opportunity to focus on and develop expertise in one or more practice areas.

Candidates with some legal experience in estate litigation or municipal law litigation will be preferred. Candidates who have developed a partial client base or referral network will also be considered.

We offer an attractive remuneration package, an automated office with full technical, administrative and peer support and an opportunity to work on complex and challenging work.

Please forward your resume, academic transcripts, and writing sample to mimi.stellino@devrylaw.ca or fax to 416-449-7071.
