

Family Law Associate

Our client is a well-respected law firm located in downtown Toronto with expertise in the areas of litigation and family law, as well as corporate, technology and securities.

The firm is seeking a junior to mid-level associate to join their high profile Family Law Practice. The successful candidate will work on a range of sophisticated matters including negotiating a range of family related agreements, as well as litigating family law disputes such as matters relating to custody, spousal and child support, property, pensions, taxation, trusts and family business issues. As the firm also sustains a busy commercial litigation practice, there is an opportunity to take on commercial files as well.

The ideal candidate will have 3-7 years of litigation experience with a strong knowledge of family law gained from another reputable firm. Strong organization skills as well as an ability to deliver quality results in a fast-paced environment are a must. As a member of the team, you will have the opportunity to assume complete carriage of files and assist senior counsel on more complex files.

The firm offers competitive remuneration as well as a dynamic and collegial work environment.
