

Live, work and play in the East Kootenays.

Solicitor (1-5 Years Call)

Litigator (3-10 Years Call)

Thinking about making a change? Is city life becoming too hectic and unrewarding? Do you enjoy the outdoors and want to put down roots in southeast British Columbia?

Rockies Law Corporation, the largest law firm in the East Kootenays, is seeking talented professionals for its offices in Fernie and Cranbrook, B.C. to join a busy solicitors' and civil litigation/chambers practice.

In each case the successful candidate will be an energetic self-starter, able to work independently and add value to our people-oriented firm. These positions would suit a recently-called solicitor who is a quick study and is able to work towards assuming responsibility for an established clientele, and an experienced litigator who wishes to take on an existing book of clients and the benefits of a growing and vibrant "blue chip" practice.

Compensation commensurate with experience.

Partnership available.

The successful candidate must enjoy living and working in the Rocky Mountains, relate well to clients of all ages and backgrounds, and work with a high degree of professionalism while maintaining the straight-forward, integral, and personal approach that we strive to provide to all of our clients.
