

Corporate Securities Lawyer

LaBarge Weinstein, Ottawa's leading business law firm, is seeking a lawyer to join its corporate securities group. The position primarily involves transactional work on mergers & acquisitions and financings for public companies. Private company and international financing work is also involved. The position also involves responsibility for day-to-day corporate, securities and commercial legal requirements of clients.

The candidate must have a minimum of 2-5 years of solid public company, corporate finance and mergers & acquisitions experience.

For information about LaBarge Weinstein, please see our website at www.lwlaw.com. Interested candidates may apply by forwarding their resume to Barbara A. Bergeron, CA, Director of Finance and Administration at bbergeron@lwlaw.com.