

Real Estate Lawyer

LaBarge Weinstein has an opportunity for a 3-7 year associate with strong real estate and related experience. The practice includes residential and commercial real estate including leasing and development work. A thorough understanding of real estate practice is essential and energy and enthusiasm on a personal level will make it a good experience for everyone. Knowledge of banking and personal property securitization is also desirable.

For information about LaBarge Weinstein, please see our website at www.lwlaw.com . Interested candidates may apply by forwarding their resume to Barbara A. Bergeron, CA, Director of Finance and Administration at bbergeron@lwlaw.com.