

Associate Litigation Lawyer

Rubenstein, Siegel

Toronto

Litigation Associate required for a small, busy North York firm with an established reputation serving institutional clients, individuals, and businesses. Caseload will include frauds, professional negligence, insolvency, mortgage enforcement and contract litigation. Technological support and mentoring is offered in a collegial environment for the candidate who demonstrates a diligent and independent approach to their professional obligations with a keen desire to excel in litigation.

This is an excellent opportunity for the right candidate.
