

Elad Canada Operations Inc. - NEW POSTING

IH 297 - Legal Counsel (3-7 yrs)

Elad Canada Operations Inc. (“Elad”) is the operations company for Elad Canada Inc., an Ontario company which is publicly traded on the Tel-Aviv stock exchange. Based in Toronto, with a branch office in Montreal, Elad manages a diverse real estate portfolio including multi-residential rental properties, office and industrial buildings and has a number of significant multi-phase condominium projects underway or in the planning stages. With assets of approximately 1 billion (CDN), the company continues its growth oriented course investing in high-quality properties or properties with development potential..

Elad is seeking a mid-level real estate associate to join their Toronto office located at Yonge and Sheppard. Reporting to the General Counsel, the successful candidate will work on a variety of matters relating to the company’s real estate portfolio in Ontario and Quebec. Responsibilities will include assisting in transactional work (acquisitions, dispositions, financings); corporate work; review and drafting of contracts; construction and condominium development matters; managing litigation files; liaising with external counsel and advising on other matters affecting the company’s business.

The ideal candidate will have 3-7 years of post-call real estate experience gained from a reputable law firm or major real estate player. Relevant experience in Quebec and a familiarity with the Civil Code together with French language skills would be an asset, but is not necessary.

Elad is seeking an entrepreneurial-minded and highly organized individual who is a strong team player, looking to tackle new and diverse challenges in a fast-paced setting. This is an excellent opportunity for a real-estate lawyer that is looking for new work that will broaden and enhance their knowledge and experience base in an in-house setting. If you have the requisite skill set, please apply in complete confidence to Danya Cohen or Anne Feehely (both Canadian qualified lawyers) at RainMaker Group.
