An established boutique Toronto law firm specializing in insurance defence matters is seeking a junior associate to join its team of seasoned litigators.

The ideal candidate will possess the skills to work independently as well as a member of a team. Advocacy, negotiation, drafting skills and computer proficiency are required. It is preferred that applicants have experience in insurance litigation.

To be considered for this challenging position, qualified applicants should submit their resume, in confidence, to the Office Administrator by way of email at: new.lawyer@hotmail.com or by way of facsimile at: 416-601-9255.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.
