Sorbara, Schumacher, McCann LLP is a twenty-two lawyer law firm with offices in Kitchener and Guelph specializing in all areas of business law. Our litigation group handles a wide variety of cases including commercial disputes, construction claims, employment litigation, personal injury, and medical malpractice matters.

Litigation Lawyer [Kitchener]

We are currently seeking a lawyer with three to five years of related litigation experience with strong technical, analytical, and advocacy skills. You must be able to handle files on your own, exhibit confidence, be disposed to a practical approach, and have superior interpersonal and client development skills. You will be expected to retain and help build our excellent client base. You will be working primarily out of our Kitchener office but may be expected to work from our Guelph office on occasion, as the need arises. This position is an exciting opportunity for the right candidate to work at a progressive, mid-size firm in a collegial environment within an engaging community.
