Cyber attacks and breaches are increasing. How do you protect your clients from these cyber threats, and what happens if a breach occurs?

At this timely program, our expert faculty will provide insights and practical tips on how to counsel your clients before, during and after a cyber event including:

- Understanding the steps that a corporation can take to prepare for or prevent a cyber breach;
- Your obligations before and in the event of a cyber breach;
- Actions that you need to take in the event of a cyber breach and where to go for assistance; and
- How to prosecute a class action or defend a claim brought by the client or customers.

If you are engaged in counseling, litigating, or developing your expertise in cyber security breaches, this program will provide essential information to add to your legal toolkit.
