

OBA CPD WEBCAST REPLAYS

ESSENTIAL SESSIONS REBROADCAST – WITH LIVE CHAT

Take Control of Your Career: Hard Work is not Enough

Date: March 14, 2019

Original Program Chairs:

Heather Douglas, AMR Barristers & Solicitors LLP

Dana Lue, Ricketts Harris LLP

Original program was held on February 6, 2019

AGENDA

Welcome and Opening Remarks from the Program Chairs

Daniel Z. Naymark, Naymark Law and 2018 Precedent Setter Award Winner

Precedent Setter Award Winner Daniel Naymark will speak to you about his journey from an associate in a private firm to starting and operating his own litigation practice - hear insider details about his business model, marketing and client development as a young lawyer, and everyday strategies for networking with your colleagues.

Deborah Glatter, Management and Leadership Consultant

Deborah Glatter has a wealth of experience to impart. Gain key insights into how to manage priorities in your career, develop a strategic plan for advancement, and create some stellar time management tips to manage the everyday.

Paulette Pommells, President and Principal Coach of Creative Choices for the 21st Century Lawyer Inc.

Lawyer Coach Paulette has helped hundreds of lawyers develop a personal brand based on their values and strengths. More important, she has helped each one apply that knowledge in a practical way. From mastering performance reviews to improving acquisition rates from client consultations, she will help you take control of your career this year!

Lina Duque, MBA, Social Media Strategist

Learn practical tactics to help you craft a strong and targeted social media presence, build a following and raise your visibility online.

Closing Remarks

Professionalism Hours: This program contains 2h 00m

The OBA has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by The Law Society of Ontario