The COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted Canadian businesses, many of which have been required to cease or otherwise limit business operations. As a result, numerous business owners across the country have pursued insurance coverage claims for business income and other losses under their commercial policies of insurance.

In this webinar, our panel of Toronto and Vancouver speakers will engage in a substantive discussion on the interpretation and application of common policy wordings that are relevant and potentially relevant to coverage claims for business losses arising from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Program Chairs: Christine Galea, Dolden Wallace Folick LLP
Lorraine Takacs, Humber College

Program Speakers: Michael Libby, Dolden Wallace Folick LLP (Vancouver)
Mark Barrett, Dolden Wallace Folick LLP (Toronto)
