

AWARD OF EXCELLENCE IN THE PROMOTION OF WOMEN'S EQUALITY

Award Winner Profile

Susan Toth (2020 Award Winner)

Susan Toth is a proud first generation Canadian. Susan grew up overseas, where she developed a passion for international human rights, after living in Chile, Brazil and Saudi Arabia for extended periods.

She is a lawyer and is currently a partner at the law firm of Polishuk Camman & Steele. She practices employment and human rights law as well as defamation and general civil litigation. She is also adjunct faculty at Brescia University College and Western University. Susan has taught Law and Inequality, Media Law and Ethics, Diversity and the Canadian Family, and Business Law.

Susan is passionate about advocacy, social justice and community work, which she channels in her role as the Vice-Chair of the London Police Services Board. She is a staunch intersectional feminist and identifies as Latinx.

In 2017, she received the Top 20 Under 40 Londoner Award as well as a Canada 150 Medal in recognition of her community work.

When she's not working or volunteering, Susan enjoys scuba diving, traveling and snowboarding.
