

OBA CPD WEBCAST REPLAYS

ESSENTIAL SESSIONS REBROADCAST – WITH LIVE CHAT

OBA CPD

Going Under Cover: Coverage for Non-Coverage Insurance Lawyers

Date: August 9, 2022

Original Program Chairs:

Marcus A. Knapp, Ricketts Harris LLP

Mary A. Teal, Van Arnhem & Associates - Travelers Canada

Original program was held on February 26, 2021

AGENDA

Welcome and Opening Remarks from the Program Chairs

Issues Posed by the “Additional Insured” Coverage

Pearl Rombis, Snowden Law Professional Corporation

- Hear what every lawyer needs to know about coverage, including an explanation of who is the Additional Insured and what is the trigger for and scope of coverage for an Additional Insured
- A discussion of what happens when your client breaches its contract and fails to add a party as an Additional Insured and what happens when your client has not been named as an Additional Insured in breach of a contractual provision to insure?

The “Additional Insured” Coverage and Multiple Insurers

Lawrence Theall, Theall Group LLP

- An examination of the duty to defend when there are overlapping policies of insurance
- When is a policy primary and when is it excess?
- How do you advise your client when there are concurrent policies of insurance?
- When there are concurrent policies of insurance, how are defence costs allocated?
- The pitfalls of negotiating a defence cost allocation agreement

Multiple Insurers and Joint Retainers

David Boghosian, Boghosian + Allen LLP

- An exploration of what happens when your client requests a defence and is refused and practical guidance on whether to litigate a defence obligation
- Get an update on the key cases in this area

This program contains:

3h of Substantive Content

OBA CPD WEBCAST REPLAYS

ESSENTIAL SESSIONS REBROADCAST – WITH LIVE CHAT

OBA CPD

Complex Coverage and Exclusion Issues

Bevin Shores, Agro Zaffiro LLP (Hamilton)

- Learn more about tricky coverage and exclusion issues
- What is the “your work” exclusion, and how has it been applied recently?

Closing Remarks

This program contains:

3h of Substantive Content