A diverse leadership enriches our Association. The CBA welcomes membership of, and participation by all lawyers, Quebec notaries and legal academics. The CBA strives to include in its leadership members from diverse communities, including women, indigenous people, people of colour, people of all ethnic and national origins, Anglophones and Francophones, people from racialized communities, people with disabilities, people from the LGBTTTQ community, and people of different ages and socioeconomic status.

INSTRUCTIONS

This form must be submitted to your Branch by April 15, 2014.

All applications will be reviewed by your Branch. The choice of nominees will depend on merit, experience, gender, geography and diversity.

The Branch submits a list of proposed candidates to the Chair of the National Nominating Committee.

If your Branch submits your name to the National Nominating Committee, you will be notified of the status of your application in July, after the National Nominating Committee meeting.

The Nominating Committee submits its recommendations to the CBA Council meeting in August.
